

MCKAMEY MANOR CONTRACT IN FULL

MCKAMEY MANOR FAIL CARDS

Each contestant starts MM with six fail cards. In some cases when MM has a highly motivated individual, they may be offered various MM negotiations that could result in the guests winning back various fail cards to be used later during their tour. TO BE CLEAR, ONCE A CONTESTANT FORFEITS THEIR INITIAL SIX FAIL CARDS DUE TO THEIR LACKLUSTER PERFORMANCE OF VARIOUS TASKS, STUNTS OR BREAKERS, THAT WILL BE CONSIDERED AN AUTOMATIC LOSS. THEIR SPECIFIC SAFE PHRASE WILL THEN BE RECITED, AND THEY WILL ALSO LOSE ANY AND ALL PORTIONS OF THE 20K MM BOUNTY. The loss of cards might happen during a discretionary Gauntlet "Boot Camp" experience, or during the real MM show itself. The contestant may at that time, be offered to sign a specific standalone reentry (single page), waiver that will allow them to continue within the MM tour based on the discretion of Russ McKamey. At that point the failed contestant will return to the MM challenge and be presented with various tasks even if he or she selected a "baby tour" to win back fail cards. Please note, fail cards will be needed to successfully navigate MCKAMEY MANOR. If the "SAFE PHRASE" is said again, the tour will be discontinued. If contestant uses profanity during their tour, live feeds, or on any post in the MM pages, it will cost them one fail card per word. If a contestant cannot control his or herself and has, at any time, a loud outburst, their tour will have lost the MM challenge; the tour will be secured and terminated; all prize money being forfeit at such a time. Qualified and trusted moderators, and Russ McKamey himself, will be closely watching for any such mistakes.
